

After the Conference

As the conference is one day only, many of the board and other attendees will be staying overnight on the Saturday to catch up. If there is enough interest, we'll book a restaurant for the evening. This meal is not included in your booking fee. Please let us know if you'd like to join us.

Accommodation

If you would like to also stay overnight and join us for dinner afterwards, please contact the office for recommendations and suggestions.
